Good Times Gonna Come

words and music by Matthew Hales

\[\text{Am} \quad \text{Am/G} \quad \text{Fmaj7} \quad \text{Bb} \quad \text{Am} \quad \text{Am/G} \quad \text{Fmaj7} \quad \text{Bb}\]

\[\text{Am} \quad \text{Am/G} \quad \text{F} \quad \text{Bb}\]

1. Need to know if you're letting go. It's all right, it's all right. I didn't know I was hurting you so. It's all right, it's all right, it's all right.

\[\text{Am} \quad \text{Am/G} \quad \text{Fmaj7} \quad \text{Bb} \quad \text{Am} \quad \text{Am} \quad \text{Am/G}\]

You came to me from nowhere, with nothing and no one. Hold tight, hold tight, hold tight.

I came so close to show you the edge. It's all I do.
right, it's all right, it's all right.}

just one of those lonely nights. The good times gonna come.

come, the good times gonna come.

In the end we
let it go a-way, we let it float a-way on the breeze.

Round the bend the sun is in the sky, it's start-ing to look like it's gonna be, yeah, it's gonna be a bright, beau-ti-ful day.

The good times gonna come, oh

Lord, the good times gonna come, yeah yeah. This is just one of those lonely nights. The good times gonna come, oh Lord, the good times gonna

The good times gonna come, oh,
good times gonna come, yeah.

Need to know if you're letting go.
It's alright, it's alright.