A pair of eyes that stare across the room watching you breathing
 Magic signs scratched inside a heart
 Filled with your name
 Colours run up and down your body
 Every time you move
 Every time, every time
 Every time you move

When I kiss the pictures on your skin
 Make me shiver with the fire
 Let me kiss the pictures on your skin

The reds, the blues, the greens and the greys
 All bleed their colours through a sweaty haze
 And we slide like a serpent on silky sheets and that twist and turn Forever and ever and ever
 Soft as a butterfly, stings like a bee
 Soft as a butterfly, stings like a bee

Colours run up and down your body
 Every time you move
 Every time, every time
 Every time you move

When I kiss the pictures on your skin
 Make me shiver with the fire
 Let me kiss the pictures on your skin
