

Queen Of My Heart

Words & Music by John McLaughlin, Steve Robson, Steve Mac & Wayne Hector

♩ = 108

1. So here we stand in our secret place,

Con pedale

where the sound of the crowd is so far away. And you take my hand and it feels like home, we both understand it's where we belong.

E F#

So how do I say, do I say— good-bye?— We both have our

E F# B

dreams, we both want to fly,— so let's take to-night— to car-ry us

F# B E B F#

through the lone-ly times.— I'll al-ways look back as I walk a-way.— This mem-'ry will last for e-ter-ni-ty.—

B E B

And all of our tears will be lost in the rain, — when I find my way — back to your arms a - gain. — But un - til that - day you know you are the Queen of my - Heart. The Queen of my - Heart. —

To Coda ⊕

2. So let's take to - night — and nev - er let go, — while dan - cing we'll kiss like there's no to - mor-row. As the stars spar - kle down - like a dia - mond ring,

I'll trea - sure this mo - ment till we meet - a - gain. But no mat - ter how far a - way you may be - I just close my eyes - and you're in my -

D.S. al Coda

dreams and there you will be un - til we meet. I'll al - ways look know you are the Queen of my Heart.

⊕ Coda

I'll al-ways look back as I walk a-way.— This mem-'ry will last for e - ter - ni - ty.— And all of our tears will be lost in the rain,

— when I find my way— back to your arms a - gain.

But un - til that - day you know you are the Queen of my - Heart. Oh, yeah, you're the Queen - of my heart. (Queen of my heart.) (Vocal ad lib.) (Queen of my Heart.)

(Queen of my Heart.) The Queen of my Heart.

rit.