SOMETIMES AGO

I had a dream of this melody, I kept singing it for days. I'm sure it's from a long time ago.

Moderately, with a 2 feeling ($d = 100$)

it was happy, it was lasting, it was free.
And

now in life,
oh, can't you see

we can make that dream into reality.

Oh, the music, it was playing;
Dm7/A

Oh, the fire light, it was dancing.

Dm7/A

All the children, they were singing;

Dm7/A

All the people, they were loving. Some

Coda

Am Dm7/A

Oh, the morning sun, it was soft and cool;
Oh, the evening breeze,
it was warm and gold.

Then all together life had started to unfold
sometime ago.
CRYSTAL SILENCE

Words by NEVILLE POTTER

I wrote this piece in 10 minutes. I got imagery of crystal stars and serene space.

night. Away from life now, all a lone. I can reflect. I let her slip away from the game she might have played if she'd stayed, if she had stayed. Oh, I know those... wondrous games that we would have played.     As long as time exists I shall recall the girl I knew so well. One

WHAT GAME SHALL WE PLAY TODAY

Words by NEVILLE POTTER

Music by CHICK COREA

The lyrics for this piece are a result of new awarenesses I had from studying some of the works of the American philosopher, L. Ron Hubbard, who has been a constant inspiration to me since 1971.

Moderately, with a 2 feeling (\( \frac{d}{\text{beat}} = 116 \))

   Cast off things that shouldn't be,
   Set him free.
   Life is paradise all together.
   What game shall we play today?

3. There's a way you can find it,
   It's within you, can't you see?
   Find the truth.
   It's not impossible all together.
   What game shall we play today?

4. Here we are all together,
   Free to have and do and be
   What we see.
   For the first time all together.
   What game shall we play today?

Then it never can die.
Just realize this is truth,
And above the skies you will always stay
Five hundred miles high.
