...of the same coin,
that we would shine like Venus in a clear night sky.

We thought our love could overcome the circumstances,

but my ambition wouldn’t allow for compromise.

And how I wish I’d done a little bit more. Now should-a, would-a, could-a means I'm out of time. Should-a, could-a, would-a can't change your mind. And I wonder, wonder what I'm gonna do.

Should-a, would-a, could-a are the last words of a fool. Yeah, yeah.

Should-a, would-a, could-a are the last words of a fool. If I would now for-sake the op-
-por-tu-ni-ties of fate. I know I’m right where I be-long... but sometimes when I’m not that strong. I wish I... wish I’d done a lit-tle but more. Now should-a, would-a, could-a means I’m out of time.

Should-a, could-a, would-a can’t change your mind. And I won-der... won-der what I’m gon-na do...

Verse 2:
I could see in the distance all the dreams that were clear to me
And every choice that I had to make left you on your own
Somehow the road we started down had split asunder
Too late to realise how far apart we’d grown.

And how I wish etc.

Verse 3:
People ask how it feels to live the kind of life others dream about
I tell them everybody gotta face their highs and their lows
And in my life there’s a love that I put aside, ’cause I was busy loving something else
So for every little thing you hold on to, you’ve got to let something else go.

And how I wish etc.
