Let There Be More Light

Far far far away, way
People heard him say, say
I will find a way way
There will come a day day
Something will be done
Then at last the mighty ship descending on a point of flame
Made contact with the human race at Milden Hall
Oh my, something in my eye eye
Something in the sky sky
Waiting there for me
The outer lock rolled slowly back
The servicemen were heard to sigh
For there revealed in flowing robes was Lucy in the sky
Now now now is the time time time
To be be be aware
Carter's father saw it there and knew the hull revealed to him
The living soul of Hereward the Wake
Oh oh did you ever
No no never will they
D-D-D can't say
Summoning his cosmic powers
And glowing slightly from his toes
His psychic emanations flowed.
Seabirds

Words and Music by
ROGER WATERS

Mighty waves come crashing down the spray is lashing high into the eagle's eye_ Surf comes rushing up the beach now will it reach the castle wall and will it fall_ shrieking as it cuts the Devil wind is calling sailors to the deep catfish dappled silver flashing dogfish puffing bubbles in my deep

But I can hear the sound of seabirds in my ear and I can see you smile

Surf is high an' the sea is a-wash an' a haze of candy floss, glitter, and beads rock that we sat on and watched in the sun that was hot to the touch and the sea was an emerald green and I can hear the sound of seabirds in my ear and I can see you smile

Embryo

Words and Music by
ROGER WATERS

All this love is all I am. A
All around I hear strange sounds come.

All ball is all gurgling in my ear.
I am so new come,

red the light and pared to dark the you night and I am very small near warm glow, moon glow, always need a little more room warm glow, moon glow, always need a little more room waiting here seems like years never seen the light of day.

whisper low here I go I will see the sunshine show.

Embryo

All this love is all I am
A ball is all I am
I'm so new compared with you
And I am very small

Warm glow, moon glow,
Always need a little more room
Waiting here seems like years
Never seen the light of day

All around I hear strange sounds
Come gurgling in my ear
Red the light and dark the night
I feel my dawn is near

Warm glow, moon glow
Always need a little more room
Whisper low, here I go
I will see the sunshine show.
Fat Old Sun

Words and Music by
DAVE GILMOUR

When that fat old sun in the sky's falling summer ev'ning birds are calling summer Sunday and a year the sound of music in my ears Distant bells new mown grass smells songs sweet

By the river holding hands

And if you see don't you make a sound pick your feet up off the ground and if you hear as the wall night falls the silver sound from a tongue so strange sing to me sing to me When that fat old sun in the sky's falling summer ev'ning birds are calling childrens laughter in my ears the last song-light disappears And if you

Fat Old Sun

When that fat old sun in the sky's falling
Summer evening birds are calling
Summer Sunday and a year
The sound of music in my ears
Distant bells
New moon grass smells
Songs sweet
By the river holding hands
And if you see, don't you make a sound
Pick your feet up off the ground
And if you hear as the wall night falls
The silver sound from a tongue so strange
Sing to me
Sing to me
When that fat old sun in the sky's falling
Summer evening birds are calling
Children's laughter in my ears
The last song light disappears.
Crying Song

Words and Music by
ROGER WATERS

(Slow)

We smiled and smiled we smiled and smiled climbed and climbed we climbed and climbed

laughter echoes in your eyes, foot tilled softly in the pines.

We cry and cry we cry and We roll and roll we roll and

cry. roll.
Sadness passes in a while.
Help me roll away the stone.

Crying Song

We smiled and smiled
We smiled and smiled
Laughter echoes in your eyes
We cry and cry
We cry and cry
Sadness passes in a while

We climbed and climbed
We climbed and climbed
Foot falls softly in the pines
We roll and roll
We roll and roll
Help me roll away the stone.
Arnold Layne

Words and Music by SYD BARRET

Arnold Layne had a strange hobby

Collecting clothes Moonshine washing line

they suit him fine

On the wall Now he's caught hung a tall nasty sort of person distorted view See through Doors clang baby blue he dug it chain gang he hates it

Oh, Arnold
Layne, it's not the same. Takes two to know.

two to know. Why can't you see.

Arnold Layne.

Arnold Layne. Arnold Layne.
Arnold Layne

Arnold Layne had a strange hobby
Collecting clothes
Moonshine, washing line
They suit him fine.

On the wall hung a tall mirror
Distorted view
See-through baby blue
He dug it

Oh Arnold Layne, it's not the same
It takes two to know
Two to know
Two to know
Two to know
Why can't you see Arnold Layne
Arnold Layne don't do it again

Arnold Layne had a strange hobby
Collecting clothes
Moonshine, washing line
They suit him fine

Now he's caught, a nasty sort of person
They gave him time
Doors clang, chain gang
He hates it

Oh Arnold Layne, it's not the same
It takes two to know
Two to know
Two to know
Two to know
Two to know
Why can't you see Arnold Layne
Arnold Layne don't do it again.

Point Me At The Sky

Hey Jean misses, Henry McLean an' I finished my beautiful flying machine
An' I'm ringing to say that I'm leaving an' maybe you'd like to fly with me and hide with me baby
Isn't it strange how little we change, isn't it sad we're insane Playing the game we know ends in tears
The game we've been playing for thousands and thousands and thousands Jumps into his cosmic flyer, pulls his plastic collar higher Light the fuse and stand well back, he cried, this my last goodbye

Point me at the sky and let it fly
Point me at the sky and let it fly
Point me at the sky and let it fly . . . .

Hey Jean misses Henry McLean an' I finished my beautiful flying machine
An' I'm ringing to say that I'm leaving an' maybe you'd like to fly with me and hide with me baby
If you survive till two thousand and five I hope you're exceedingly thin
For if you are stout you will have to breathe out While the people around you breathe-in-breathe-in People pressing on my sides is something that I hate
And so is sitting down to eat with only little capsules on my plate

Point me at the sky
Point me at the sky
Point me at the sky . . . .
See-Saw

Words and Music by RICHARD WRIGHT

Mar-golds are very much in love but he doesn't mind

pick-ing up sis-ter he makes his way to see-saw land

All the way she smiles She goes up as he goes down down sits on a stick in the ri-ver laugh-ter in his sleep sister's throwing stones

Hoping for a hit
He doesn't know so there

She goes up while she goes down down

Another time
Another day
A brother's way to leave

Another time
Another day

She'll be selling plastic flowers on a Sunday afternoon picking out weeds she hasn't got the time to care all can see he's not there

She grows up for another man and he's down
See-Saw

Marigolds are very much in love
       But he doesn't mind
Picking up sister he makes his way to see-saw land
       All the way she smiles
She goes up as he goes down down
       Sits on a stick in the river
Laughter in his sleep
       Sister's throwing stones
Hoping for a hit
       He doesn't know
So there
       She goes up while he goes down down
Another time, another day
       A brother's way to leave
Another time, another day
       She'll be selling plastic flowers on a Sunday afternoon
Picking out needs
       She hasn't got the time to care
All can see he's not there
       She grows up for another man
And he's down.

Words and Music by

Ic - ey wind of night be gone this is not your do - main.

In the sky a bird was heard to cry.

Misty morning whisperings and gentle stirring sound.

Belies a deathly silence that lay all around.

Hear the lark and harken to the bark - ing of the dogfox gone to ground.

See the splashing of the kingfisher, flashing to the water, and the river of green is sliding unseen beneath the trees laughing as it passes thru' the endless summer making for the sea.

In the lazy water meadows, I lay me down.

All around me golden sunflakes settle on the ground

Basking in the sunshine of a bygone afternoon

Bringing sounds of yesterday into this city doom

Dearer wind of night be gone this is not your domain
On the sky a bird was heard to cry
Misty morning whisperings and gentle stirring sound
Belies a deathly silence that lay all around

Hear the lark and harken to the barking of the dog-box gone to ground
See the splashing of the kingfisher flashing to the the water
And the river of green is sliding unseen beneath the trees
Laughing as it passes thru' the endless Summer making for the sea

In the lazy water meadows I lay me down
All around me golden sunflakes settle on the ground
