Coming soon - How to read music
A Foreword by Elvis Presley

Hi. You know, whenever I'm browsing through a shopping mall, or busy buying groceries at a supermarket, I often find myself humming one of the many happy songs that these Monty Python guys have churned out over the years.

"I'm a lumberjack and I'm okay," I'll find myself crooning as I tip a grocery clerk a new pink Cadillac, or "Isn't it awfully nice to have a penis," I'll sing as I buy some more Listerine.

It's amazing how often I find myself breaking into "Ya Di Bucketty", especially when the holidays come around. How I wish I could have that on my Christmas album. And I'd give anything to have recorded the "Bruces' Philosophers Song", instead of "All Shook Up".

Listen, if you ask me these guys are the greatest, and if only I were alive today I would be covering some of their epoch-making songs. But excuse me now y'all, as I have to go out and visit some more supermarkets, so the folks in America will know I'm still around.

Hope ya enjoy this book as much as me,

HOW TO READ THE MUSIC IN THIS BOOK.

Some of the notes in this book are very old indeed. Mozart is known to have used several of them and Beethoven too was not averse to putting them in his songs.

The Pythons have selected the best of these notes to be in their songbook.

Note E looks like this:

Note F
Note G
Note A
Note B
Note C
Note D
Note E (again)

O LORD, please don’t burn us,
Don’t grill or toast your flock,
Don’t put us on the barbecue,
Or simmer us in stock.
Don’t braise or bake or boil us,
Or stir-fry us in a wok.

2* Oh please don’t lightly poach us,
Or baste us with hot fat,
Don’t fricassee or roast us,
Or boil us in a vat.
And please don’t stick thy servants, Lord,
In a Rotissomat.

I'm a lumberjack
And I'm OK
I sleep all night
And I work all day

He's a lumberjack
And he's OK
He sleeps all night
And he works all day

I cut down trees
I eat my lunch
I go to the lavatory
On Wednesdays I go shopping
And have buttered scones for tea

He cuts down trees
He eats his lunch
He goes to the lavatory
On Wednesdays he goes shopping
And has buttered scones for tea

He's a lumberjack
And he's OK
He sleeps all night
And he works all day

I cut down trees
I skip and jump
I like to press wild flowers
I put on women's clothing
And hang around in bars

He cuts down trees
He skips and jumps
He likes to press wild flowers
He puts on women's clothing
And hangs around in bars?
I'm a lumberjack
He cuts down trees
He wears high heels
Suspending and a bra...
And he works all day

He's OK
And he sleeps all night

I'm a lumberjack
He cuts down trees
He wears high heels
Suspending and a bra...
And he works all day

He's OK
And he sleeps all night

I wish I'd been a girlie,
Just like my dear papa.

He's a lumberjack
And he's OK
He sleeps all night
And he works all day

I wish I'd been a girlie,
Just like my dear papa.
AT LAST, A SONG FOR GERMAN LUMBERJACKS

WHY ARE VEE SINKING IN ENGLISCH?

ich bin ein Holzfäller und fühle mich stark.
Ich bin ein Holzfäller und fühl mich stark
Ich schlaf des Nachts und hack am Tag

Ich falle Bäume, ich ess mein Brot
Ich geh auf das WC
Am Mittwoch geh ich shopping
Kau Kekse zum Kaffee

Er ist ein Holzfäller und fühlt sich stark
Er schlaf des Nachts und hackt am Tag

Er fällt die Bäume er isst sein Brot
Er geht auf das WC
Am Mittwoch geht er shopping
Kau Kekse zum Kaffee

Ich falle Bäume und hups und spring
Steck Blumen in die Vas
Ich schlupf in Frauenkleider
Und lummel mich in Bars

Er fällt Bäume, er hups und springt
Steckt Blumen in die Vas
Er schlupft in Frauenkleider
Und lummelt sich in Bars...?

Er ist ein Holzfäller und fühlt sich stark
Er schlaf des Nachts und hackt am Tag

Ich falle Bäume, tragt Stockelschuh
Und Strumpf und Bustenhalsiter
War gern ein kleines Mädchen
So wie mein Onkel Walter

Er fällt die Bäume, tragt Stockelschuh
Und Strumpf und Bustenhalsiter...?

Stupid bitch
I can see a bare-bottomed mandrill
Slyly eyeing his upper nostril
If he jumps inside there too
I really won't know what to do
I'll be a proud possessor of a kind of nasal zoo
A nasal zoo

I've got a ferret sticking up my nose
And what is worse it constantly explodes
Ferrets don't explode you say
But it happened nine times yesterday
And I should know 'cause each time
I was standing in the way

I've got a ferret sticking up my nose
I've got a ferret sticking up my nose
How it got there I can't tell
But now it's there it hurts like hell
And what is more it radically affects my sense of smell
I've got a ferret sticking up my nose.  (Chorus)

He's got a ferret sticking up his nose.  (Solo)  How it got there

I can't tell But now it's there it hurts like hell And what is more it radically affects my sense of smell. (His sense of smell.)

I've got Ninety thousand pounds in my pyjamas. I've got Forty thousand French francs in my fridge. I've got lots of lovely lire. Now the Deutschmark's getting dearer. And my dollar bills would buy the Brooklyn Bridge. There is nothing quite as wonderful as money. There is nothing quite as beautiful as cash. Some people say it's folly, but I'd rather have the lolly. With money you can make a splash.

There is nothing quite as wonderful as money
There is nothing like a newly minted pound
Everyone must hanker
For the butchness of a banker
It's accountancy that makes the world go round

You can keep your Marxist ways
For it's only just a phase
For it's money makes the world go round
Immanuel Kant was a real piss ant
Who was very rarely stable,
Heidegger, Heidegger was a boozy beggar
Who could think you under the table,
David Hume could out-consume
Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel,
And Wittgenstein was a beery swine
Who was just as schloshed as Schlegel.
There's nothing Nietzsche couldn't teach ya
'Bout the raising of the wrist,
Socrates, himself, was permanently pissed.

John Stuart Mill, of his own free will,
On half a pint of shandy was particularly ill,
Plato, they say, could stick it away,
Half a crate of whisky every day.
Aristotle, Aristotle was a bugger for the bottle,
Hobbes was fond of his dram,
And René Descartes was a drunken fart,
"I drink, therefore I am."
Yes Socrates, himself, is particularly missed,
A lovely little thinker,
But a bugger when he's pissed.

GONGggggg!
Brave Sir Robin.

Brave and bold Sir Robin rode forth from Camelot. He was not afraid to die, O brave Sir Robin. He was not at all afraid to be killed in nasty ways. Brave, brave, brave, brave Sir Robin.
Bravely bold Sir Robin rode forth from Camelot
He was not afraid to die, o brave Sir Robin
He was not at all afraid to be killed in nasty ways
Brave, brave, brave, brave Sir Robin

He was not in the least bit scared to be mashed into a pulp
Or to have his eyes gouged out and his elbows broken
To have his kneecaps split and his body burned away
And his limbs all hacked and mangled, brave Sir Robin

His head smashed in and his heart cut out
And his liver removed and his bowels unplugged
And his nostrils raped and his bottom burnt off and his penis...

He is brave Sir Robin, Brave Sir Robin who...
To fight and.............

Brave Sir Robin ran away
Bravely, ran away... away...
When danger reared its ugly head
He bravely turned his tail and fled

Yes, brave Sir Robin turned about
And gallantly he chickened out
Bravely taking to his feet
He beat a very brave retreat
Bravest of the brave, Sir Robin

Half a bee, philosophically, must ipso facto half not be.
But half the bee, has got to be, vis-a-vis its entity. D'you see? But can a bee be said to be, or not to be an entire bee, when half the bee is not a bee, due to some ancient injury?

La di di, one two three, Eric the half a bee. A B C D E F G, Eric the half a bee.

Is this wretched demi-bee, half asleep upon my knee, some freak from a menagerie? No!

Rhubarb Tart...

I want another slice of rhubarb tart
    I want another lovely slice
I'm not disparaging the blueberry pie
    But rhubarb tart is oh-so-very nice

    A rhubarb what? A rhubarb tart
    A what-barb tart? A ruh-barb tart
    I want another slice of rhubarb tart

The principles of modern philosophy
    Were postulated by Descartes Discarding everything he wasn't certain of
He said, "I think therefore I am a rhubarb tart"

    A rhubarb what? A rhubarb tart
    René who? René Descartes
    Poor mutt, he thought he was a rhubarb tart

Rhubarb tart has fascinated all the poets
    Especially the Immortal Bard
He made Richard the Third call out at Bosworth Field
    "My kingdom for a slice of rhubarb tart"

    Immortal what? Immortal tart
    Rhubarb what? A rhubarb Bard
    As rhymes go that is really pretty bad
Since Wassily Kandinsky and Paul Klee
Laid down the axioms of abstract art
Even Jackson Pollock and Piet Mondrian
Prefer to paint a slice of rhubarb tart

Wassi who? A Wassi-ly
Kandin who? A Kandin-sky
And how did he get in there for a start?

Read all the existentialist philosophers
Like Schopenhauer and Jean-Paul Sartre
Even Martin Heidegger agreed on one thing
Eternal happiness is rhubarb tart

A rhubarb what? A rhubarb tart
Jean-Paul who? Jean-Paul Sartre
That sounds just like a rhyme from Lionel Bartre

I want another slice of rhubarb tart
I want another lovely slice
I'm not disparaging the blueberry pie
But rhubarb tart is oh-so-very nice

With nuclear bombs to blow us all sky high

It's depressing and it's senseless and that's why...

I like Chinese
They only come up to your knees
Yet they're always friendly

I like Chinese
I like Chinese
There's nine hundred million of them

You'd better learn to like them
That's what I say

I like Chinese
I like Chinese
They come from a long way overseas
But they're cute and they're cuddly
And they're ready to please

I like Chinese food
The waiters never are rude
Think of the many things they've done to impress
There's Maoism, Taoism, I Ching and chess

So I like Chinese

I like Chinese thought
The wisdom that Confucius taught
If Darwin is anything to shout about
The Chinese will survive us all without any doubt

So I like Chinese
I like Chinese
They only come up to your knees
Yet they're wise and they're witty
And they're ready to please

I like Chinese
I like Chinese
Their food is guaranteed to please

Knights of the Round Table

We're Knights of the Round Table.
We dance when e'er we're able.
We do routines and chorus scenes with footwork impeccable.

We dine well here in Camelot.
We eat ham and jam and spam a lot.

We're opera-mad in Camelot,
We sing from the diaphragm a l...o...o...l.

In war we're tough and able,
Quite indefatigable.
Between our quests, we sequin vests and impersonate Clark Gable.

It's a busy life in Camelot,
I have to push the pram a lot.

The Background to History
(from the hit Broadway musical An Introduction to the Open Field System in Mediaeval England Part IV)

A new series on Radio 3, introduced by Professor Angus Jones of the Open University
Part IV: The Open Field Farming System in Mediaeval England

PROF. JONES: One of the main elements in any study of the mediaeval open-field farming system is the allocation of plough teams for the winter sowing. Professor Tofts of the University of Manchester puts it like this:

Molto Marlioso

"To plough once in the winter sowing, and again in Lent, sowing with as many oxen sowing with as many oxen as he shall have yoked in the plough."

PROF. JONES: But of course there is considerable evidence of open-field villages as far back as the tenth century. Professor Moorhead:

Poco Glitteroso

There's evidence There's evidence (Evidence?)

Evidence (Evidence?) There's evidence (Evidence?)

Evidence of settlements with one long village street, farmsteads, hamlets, little towns – the framework was complete. By the time...

ru-rural framework was complete.

PROF. JONES: This is not to say of course that the system was as sophisticated as it later came to be. I asked the Professor of Mediaeval Studies at Cambridge why this was.

PROF. HEGERMANN: Well it may not have been a statutory obligation, but I mean, a guy who was a freeman was obliged in the mediaeval system to...

PROF. JONES: To do boonwork?

PROF. HEGERMANN: That's right. There's an example from the village rolls in 1313.

PROF. JONES: And I believe you're going to do it for us.

PROF. HEGERMANN: That's right, yes...

Sempre Heyjudioso

(Oh) It's written in the village rolls that 'if one plough-team wants an oxen and that oxen is lent, then the villeins and the ploughman have got to have the lord's consent.'

Then the villeins and the ploughman got to have the lord's consent.

Finland, Finland, Finland
The country where I want to be Eating breakfast or dinner
Or snack lunch in the hall
Finland, Finland, Finland
Finland has it all

You're so sadly neglected
And often ignored
A poor second to Belgium
When going abroad

Finland, Finland, Finland
The country where I quite want to be Your mountains so lofty
Your treetops so tall
Finland, Finland, Finland
Finland has it all

Finland has it all...
All things dull and ugly
All creatures short and squat
All things rude and nasty
The Lord God made the lot

Each little snake that poisons
Each little wasp that stings
He made their brutish venom
He made their horrid wings

All things sick and cancerous
All evil great and small
All things foul and dangerous
The Lord God made them all

Each nasty little hornet
Each beastly little squid
Who made the spikey urchin?
Who made the sharks? He did.

All things sebbed and ulcerous
All pox both great and small
Putrid, foul and gangrenous
The Lord God made them all

Handel and Haydn and Rachmaninov
Enjoyed a nice drink with their meal
But nowadays no-one will serve them
And their gravy is left to congeal

Verdi and Wagner delighted the crowds
With their highly original sound
The pianos they played are still working
But they're both six feet underground

They're decomposing composers
There's less of them every year
You can say what you like to Debussy
But there's not much of him left to hear Beethoven's gone, but his music lives on, and Mozart don't go shop-pin' no more, You'll never meet Liszt or Brahms again, And Edgar doesn't answer the door.

Schubert and Chopin used to chuckle and laugh, Whilst composing a long symphony, But one hundred and fifty years later, There's very little of them left to see. They're decomposing composers, There's nothing much anyone can do,

You can still hear Beethoven, But Beethoven cannot hear you.
Many people, after reading a book like this, may well prepare a salad or a timbale des fruits without washing their hands. This can lead to itching, discomfort and bottom problems.

It is imperative after reading explicitly musical material to wash, scrub, scour, or better still, sand-blast your hands before doing anything else. In fact, to be totally safe, we suggest you cut them off and put them somewhere well away from dirt. This does not mean you can make a salad with the stumps. In fact, if you want to avoid serious illness, don't make salad at all, or read books, or better still, be alive. I've been dead for over a year now and can honestly say I've never felt better.

Yours sincerely,

Brigadier N.Q.T.F. Sixpence (Mrs)

I ache for you, my darling, and I hope you get well soon

My clapped-out genitalia is not so bad for me
As the complete and utter failure every time I try to pee
My doctor says my buboes are the worst he's ever seen
My scrotum's painted orange and my balls are turning green

My heart is very tender though my parts are awful raw
You might have been infected but you never were a bore
I'm dying of your love, my love, I'm your spirochaetal clown
I've left my body to science but I'm afraid they've turned it down

I like traffic lights,
I like traffic lights,
No matter where they've been.

I like traffic lights,
I like traffic lights,
I like traffic lights,
I like traffic lights,

But only when they're green.

But not when they are red.

Although my name's not

I like traffic lights,
I like traffic lights,
I like traffic lights, Oh God!
the babe they called Brian... the babe they called Brian
He grew... grew, grew and grew
Grew up to be
Grew up to be
A boy called Brian
A boy called Brian

He had arms and legs and hands and feet
This boy whose name was Brian
And he grew... grew, grew and grew
Grew up to be
Yes he grew up to be
A teenager called Brian
A teenager called Brian

And his face became spotty
Yes his face became spotty
And his voice dropped down low
And things started to grow
On young Brian and show
He was certainly no
No girl named Brian
Not a girl named Brian

And he started to shave
And have one off the wrist
And want to see girls
And go out and get pissed
A man called Brian
This man called Brian

Isn’t it awfully nice to have a penis, isn’t it frightfully good to have a dong? It’s swell to have a stiffy. It’s divine to own a dick. From the tiniest little tadger to the world’s biggest prick. So three cheers for your Willy or John Thomas. Hoo-ray for your one-eyed trouser snake, your piece of pork, your wife’s best friend. Your Percy or your cock. You can wrap it up in ribbons. You can slip it in your sock, but don’t take it out in public or they will stick you in the dock. And you won’t come back.
Penis Song
not the Noël Coward Song

Good evening, ladies and gentlemen.
Here's a little number I tossed off recently in the Caribbean.

Isn't it awfully nice to have a penis,
Isn't it frightfully good to have a dong?
It's swell to have a stiffy,
It's divine to own a dick,
From the tiniest little tadger,
To the world's biggest prick.

So three cheers for your Willy or John Thomas,
Hooray for your one-eyed trouser snake,
Your piece of pork, your wife's best friend,
Your Percy or your cock,
You can wrap it up in ribbons,
You can slip it in your sock,
But don't take it out in public,
Or they will stick you in the dock,
And you won't come back.
Middleword by E. F. God

When I created the world in those amazingly busy seven days, I remember it as being a tremendously exciting period. There was so much to do that I honestly had hardly any time to notice what I was creating. I know that sounds awful, but I think anyone who's created anything will realise that very often you become so tied up with whatever it is you're creating that you can't see the wood for the trees - and I was creating the wood and the trees!

I mean, some days were great. The first day of course we couldn't see a bloody thing. I mean, I actually had to invent light just so we could see what we were doing! Sounds crazy now, doesn't it! Once I'd got the hang of it and done the basics there were some very exciting moments, though. The firmament, which I did on the second day, was great because, to be quite honest, I had no idea what a firmament really was, I just had to have something to divide the waters from the waters, and it turned out to be just right for that purpose. I also liked the tree yielding fruit. I don't know, it just had a nice ring to it. I suppose, now, with the benefit of hindsight, perhaps I should have just stuck to the tree and forgotten the fruit, but I liked the fruit and I didn't know Adam and Eve would make such a bollocks of it (excuse my French). I've been quite criticised over the years for letting them loose in the Garden of Eden, but I gave them Free Will and they decided that rather than write poetry or sing to each other or invent a board game they'd go and talk to snakes. All right, I accept that there was an inherent risk but honestly, if you could have the choice to do anything you wanted in the loveliest garden ever made, with rivers and trees yielding fruit all over the place, would you seek out the nearest snake and ask how you could best get a rise out of the park-keeper? The next thing is that poor old Muggins is being blamed for everything from the Black Death to setting fire to Windsor Castle. There is no evidence in any of my utterances that I tampered with the wiring in the Long Gallery, just below the little French satinwood side-table where the Queen keeps the telephone directories, and if you can find the phrase "And then God created buboes", then all right, I decimated Europe, personally, in the fourteenth century. (I mean, I created Europe in the first place, why would I want to decimate it?) Sorry to go on but there is a downside to being Creator (my capitals).
Now various people have written to me and asked why I didn't create music and if I had created it would I have created reggae or funk or ska or something classical. Well, without getting too heavy I have to remind you that I created Man (and, call me a sexist pig, but some days I wish I'd left it there) and left him to come up with whatever he wanted. Well, we all know now that the silly sod chose sin, and that's water under the bridge, but I have to say that there are some things that he thought up which have given me a little quiet pride, and music is one of them. Now, a lot of what I call Brown-nose music, you know, all that "How Great Thou Art, Wonderful God" etc., etc., doesn't do a thing for me, and if I hear another organ I might well reconsider about the buboes. What I like is a song which just goes straight to the heart of things. What could summon up the joy of creation more than "Isn't It Frightfully Nice to Have a Penis"? I mean, thank you, whoever wrote that. Thank you. I was at my lowest ebb when I created the penis. It was, quite frankly, a rush job and I thought it looked a bit daft. So it's jolly good to hear someone thanking me for it. "I've Got Two Legs", there's another. It's all very well producing Organ Sonatas and Oratorios, but no one ever stops to consider that without two legs you can't reach the bloody pedals! (Excuse my French.) It is for all these reasons that I believe the Monty Python songs will live long after Mozart and Beethoven and Crispian St Peters have been forgotten. I can truly say that these songs are recommended by God.
ALWAYS LOOK ON THE BRIGHT SIDE OF...
ALWAYS LOOK ON THE BRIGHT SIDE OF...

Some things in life are bad They can really make you mad

Other things just make you swear and curse When you're chewing on life's gristle Don't grumble, give a whistle And this'll help things turn out for the best And... Always look on the bright side of life (Whistle)

If life seems jolly rotten There's something you've forgotten And that's to laugh and smile and dance and sing When you're feeling in the dumps Don't be silly chumps Just purse your lips and whistle that's the thing And...

SOME THINGS IN LIFE ARE BAD
THEY CAN REALLY MAKE YOU MAD
OTHER THINGS JUST MAKE YOU SWEAR AND CURSE
WHEN YOU'RE CHEWING ON LIFE'S GRISTLE
DON'T GRUMBLE, GIVE A WHISTLE AND THIS'LL HELP THINGS TURN OUT FOR THE BEST...

AND... ALWAYS LOOK ON THE BRIGHT SIDE OF LIFE...
ALWAYS LOOK ON THE LIGHT SIDE OF LIFE...

IF LIFE SEEMS JOLLY ROTTEN
THERE'S SOMETHING YOU'VE FORGOTTEN
AND THAT'S TO LAUGH AND SMILE AND DANCE AND SING
WHEN YOU'RE FEELING IN THE DUMPS
DON'T BE SILLY CHUMPS
JUST PURSE YOUR LIPS AND WHISTLE, THAT'S THE THING

AND... ALWAYS LOOK ON THE BRIGHT SIDE OF LIFE...
COME ON, ALWAYS LOOK ON THE BRIGHT SIDE OF LIFE...

FOR LIFE IS QUITE ABSURD
AND DEATH'S THE FINAL WORD
YOU MUST ALWAYS FACE THE CURTAIN WITH A BOW
FORGET ABOUT YOUR SIN, GIVE THE AUDIENCE A GRIN
ENJOY IT, IT'S YOUR LAST CHANCE ANYHOW
SO ALWAYS LOOK ON THE BRIGHT SIDE OF DEATH
JUST BEFORE YOU DRAW YOUR TERMINAL BREATH
LIFE'S A PIECE OF SHIT
WHEN YOU LOOK AT IT
LIFE'S A LAUGH AND DEATH'S A JOKE, IT'S TRUE
YOU'LL SEE IT'S ALL A SHOW
KEEP 'EM LAUGHING AS YOU GO
JUST REMEMBER THAT THE LAST LAUGH IS ON YOU

AND... ALWAYS LOOK ON THE BRIGHT SIDE OF LIFE...
ALWAYS LOOK ON THE RIGHT SIDE OF LIFE...
COME ON GUYS, CHEER UP
ALWAYS LOOK ON THE BRIGHT SIDE OF LIFE...
ALWAYS LOOK ON THE BRIGHT SIDE OF LIFE...

WORSE THINGS HAPPEN AT SEA, YOU KNOW
ALWAYS LOOK ON THE BRIGHT SIDE OF LIFE...
I MEAN, WHAT HAVE YOU GOT TO LOSE?
YOU KNOW, YOU COME FROM NOTHING
YOU'RE GOING BACK TO NOTHING
WHAT HAVE YOU LOST? NOTHING!

ALWAYS LOOK ON THE RIGHT SIDE OF LIFE...
I bet you they won't play this song on the radio,
I bet you they won't play this new song.

It's not that it's controversial,
Just that the words are awfully strong.
You can't say it on the radio.
You can't even say I'd like to.

So I bet you they won't play this song on the radio.
I bet you they daren't well programme it.
I bet you their goddamn old Programme Directors
Will think it's a load of horse.

Good evening, Ladies & Gentlemen. It's truly a real honourable experience to be here this evening. A very wonderful and warm and emotional moment for all of us. And I'd like to sing a song for all of you.

After Life
let's o-ra-lise
Sit on my face and tell me that you love me
I'll sit on your face and tell you I love you too
I love to hear you oralise
When I'm between your thighs You blow me away Sit on my face and let my lips embrace you I'll sit on your face and then I'll love you truly
Life can be fine if we both sixty-nine If we sit on our faces in all sorts of places And play till we're blown away.

There are Jews in the world, there are Buddhists, there are Hindus and Mormons and then, there are those that follow Mohammed. But I've never been one of them.... I'm a Roman Catholic, and have been since the day I was born. And the one thing they say about Catholics is they'll take you as soon as you're warm.... You don't have to be a six footer, you don't have to be a great brain. You don't have to have any clothes on. You're a Catholic the moment Dad came.... Because... every sperm is sacred. Every sperm is great. If a sperm is wasted, God gets quite irritated.

Every sperm is sacred,
Every sperm is great,

Let the heathen spill theirs,
On the dusty ground,
God shall make them pay for Each sperm that can't be found.

Every sperm is wanted,
Every sperm is good,
Every sperm is needed
In your neighbourhood.

Hindu, Taoist, Mormon,
Spill theirs just anywhere,
But God loves those who treat their Semen with more care.

Every sperm is sacred,
Every sperm is great,
If a sperm is wasted,
God gets quite irate.

Every sperm is sacred,
Every sperm is good,
Every sperm is needed
In your neighbourhood.

Every sperm is useful,
Every sperm is fine,
God needs everybody's,
Mine!
And mine!
And mine!

Let the pagan spill theirs,
O'er mountain, hill and plain,
God shall strike them down for Each sperm that's spilt in vain.

Every sperm is sacred,
Every sperm is good,
Every sperm is needed
In your neighbourhood.

Every sperm is sacred,
Every sperm is great,
If a sperm is wasted,
God gets quite irate.

Why are we here, what's life all about? Is God really real, or is there some doubt? Well, tonight we're going to sort it all out, for tonight it's the Meaning of Life. What's the point of all this hoax? Is it the chicken and the egg time, are we just yolks? Or perhaps we're just one of God's little jokes, well, ça c'est the Meaning of Life. Is life just a game where we make up the rules, while we're searching for something to say, or are we just simply spiralling coils of self-replicating DNA? In this life, what is our fate? Is there Heaven and Hell? Do we reincarnate? Is mankind evolving or is it too late? Well, tonight here's the Meaning of Life. For millions this life is a sad vale of tears, sitting round with rien, nothing to say, while the scientists say we're just simply spiralling coils of self-replicating DNA. So just why, why are we here? And just what, what, what, what do we fear? Well ce soir, for a change, it will all be made clear, for this is the Meaning of Life – c'est le sens de la vie – this is the Meaning of Life.
Whenever life gets you down, Mrs Brown, and things seem hard or tough, and people are stupid, obnoxious or daft, and you feel that you've had quite enough...

Just remember that you're standing on a planet that's evolving, and evolving at nine hundred miles an hour, that's orbiting at nineteen miles a second, so it's reckoned, a sun that is the source of all our power. The sun and you and me and all the stars that we can see, are moving at a million miles a day, in an outer spiral arm, at forty thousand miles an hour, of the Galaxy we call the Milky Way.

Our Galaxy itself contains 100 billion stars. The Universe itself keeps on expanding and expanding in all of the directions it can whizz.

It's 100,000 light years side to side. As fast as it can go, at the speed of light you know.

It bulges in the middle, 16,000 light years thick. 12 million miles a minute, and that's the fastest speed there is.

But out by us it's just 3,000 light years wide. So remember when you're feeling very small and insecure.

We're 30,000 light years from galactic central point. How amazingly unlikely is your birth.

We go round every 200 million years. And pray that there's intelligent life somewhere up in space.

And our Galaxy is only one of millions of billions. Because there's bugger all down here on Earth.
