Slow Rock $\mathcal{J} = 90$

w/Rhy. Fig. 1 (7 times)

The musical score is divided into two main sections: an Intro and a Rhythmic Figure 1 section.

Intro: The guitar part (Gtr. III) starts with a 'Full' bend and a 'hold bend' section. The bass part (B) has a 'Full' bend and a 'hold bend' section. The guitar part (Gtr. I & II) has a 'Full' bend and a 'hold bend' section. The bass part (B) has a 'Full' bend and a 'hold bend' section.

Rhythmic Figure 1 (Gtrs. I & II): The guitar part (Gtr. I & II) features a rhythmic figure with a 'P.M.' (Palm Mute) and a 'H' (Harmonics) mark. The bass part (B) has a 'H' (Harmonics) mark.

The musical notation for the guitar solo in "Hotel California" is presented in two systems. The top system features a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The first staff contains a melodic line with notes marked "Full" and "1/2", indicating full and half-picked notes. The second staff contains a bass line with notes marked "Full" and "1/2". The bottom system continues the melodic line in the treble clef, with notes marked "Full" and "1/2". The bass line in the bottom system contains notes marked "Full" and "1/2", and includes a section labeled "let ring" and "trem. pick". The notation includes various musical symbols such as eighth notes, sixteenth notes, and rests, as well as dynamic markings like "Full" and "1/2".

The musical score for 'The Rose Tree' is presented in three systems. The first system contains the first four measures of the melody and the first two measures of the bass line. The second system contains measures five through eight of both parts. The third system contains measures nine through twelve. The melody is written on a single staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The bass line is written on a three-staff system. The melody consists of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some measures containing beamed sixteenth notes. The bass line consists of quarter and eighth notes, with some measures containing beamed eighth notes. The piece concludes with a final double bar line in the third system.

The musical score for 'The Rose Tree' is presented in two systems. The first system features a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a common time signature (C). The melody is written on a single staff, starting with a piano (p.) dynamic. The second system continues the melody, also marked with a piano (p.) dynamic, and includes a guitar accompaniment below. The guitar part is written on two staves, with the top staff showing the fret numbers (0, 7, 5) and the bottom staff showing the corresponding notes. The piece concludes with a final measure marked with a piano (p.) dynamic.

The musical score for 'The Rose Tree' is presented in three systems. The first system contains the first two measures of the melody and the first two measures of the guitar accompaniment. The second system contains the next two measures of the melody and the next two measures of the guitar accompaniment. The third system contains the final two measures of the melody and the final two measures of the guitar accompaniment. The melody is written in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The guitar accompaniment is written in standard notation with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The score includes dynamic markings (p, mf) and articulation markings (H, P). The guitar accompaniment includes fret numbers (0, 5, 7, 8) and fingerings (1, 2, 3, 4, 5).

The musical score for "The Rose Tree" is presented in a simplified notation system. The treble staff shows the melody with notes and rests, while the bass staff shows the guitar accompaniment using a simplified notation system with numbers 0-7 and 'H' and 'P' markings. The piece is divided into four measures.

Measure 1: Treble staff: G4 (H), A4 (H), B4 (H), C5 (P). Bass staff: 0, 4 (H), 5 (P), 7.

Measure 2: Treble staff: D5 (H), E5 (H), F#5 (H), G5 (P). Bass staff: 5 (H), 7 (P), 0, 7.

Measure 3: Treble staff: A5 (H), B5 (H), C6 (H), D6 (P). Bass staff: 1 (H), 2 (P), 3, 0, 9.

Measure 4: Treble staff: E6 (H), F#6 (H), G6 (H), A6 (P). Bass staff: 4 (H), 5 (P), 0, 7.

The musical score for 'The Rose Tree' is presented in two systems. The first system consists of a treble staff and a bass staff. The treble staff contains a melody with notes marked with 'H' (half note) and 'P' (quarter note), and slurs indicating phrasing. The bass staff contains a bass line with notes marked with 'H' and 'P', and slurs. The second system also consists of a treble staff and a bass staff. The treble staff contains a melody with notes marked with 'H' and 'P', and slurs. The bass staff contains a bass line with notes marked with 'H' and 'P', and slurs. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 4/4.

First system of musical notation. The treble staff contains a melodic line with slurs and accents (H) and slurs (sl.). The bass staff contains a bass line with fingerings (4, 5, 7, 0) and (7) 9, 7, 9, 7, 5, 7, 0. The system is divided into four measures.

Second system of musical notation. The treble staff contains a melodic line with slurs and accents (H) and slurs (sl.). The bass staff contains a bass line with fingerings (7, 9, 7, 0) and (9) 7, 9, 7, 5, 7, 0. The system is divided into four measures.

Third system of musical notation. The treble staff contains a melodic line with slurs and accents (H) and slurs (sl.). The bass staff contains a bass line with fingerings (7) 9, 7, 9, 7, 5, 7, 0 and 5, 7, 9, 5, 7, 9, 0. The system is divided into four measures.

Fourth system of musical notation. The treble staff contains a melodic line with slurs and accents (H) and slurs (sl.). The bass staff contains a bass line with fingerings (9) 7, 9, 7, 5, 7, 0 and (7) 5, 7, 5, 9, 5, 0. The system is divided into four measures.

Fifth system of musical notation. The treble staff contains a melodic line with slurs and accents (H) and slurs (sl.). The bass staff contains a bass line with fingerings (1, 2, 9, 0) and 1, 2, 9, 2, 0, 9, 0. The system is divided into four measures.

The image shows a musical score for guitar. The top staff is in treble clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a common time signature. The melody consists of eighth notes with slurs and accents, and a bass staff with a single bass note. The score is divided into two systems, each containing four measures.

The image shows a musical score for the song "The Rose Tree". It consists of two staves. The top staff is a treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 4/4 time signature. The melody is written in eighth notes, with a half note (H) above each measure. The bottom staff is a bass clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 4/4 time signature. The bass line is written in eighth notes, with a half note (H) above each measure. The score is divided into four measures, each containing a half note (H) above the melody and a half note (H) above the bass line. The first measure of the bass line has a "mp" (mezzo-piano) dynamic marking. The second measure of the bass line has a "p" (piano) dynamic marking. The third measure of the bass line has a "p" (piano) dynamic marking. The fourth measure of the bass line has a "p" (piano) dynamic marking. The score is written in a simple, clear style, suitable for a children's songbook.

The musical score for 'The Rose Tree' is presented in three systems. The first system contains the first two measures, the second system contains measures three and four, and the third system contains measures five and six. The melody is written on a treble clef staff with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The accompaniment is written on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The melody features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together, with slurs and accents. The accompaniment consists of a steady eighth-note bass line and a treble line with chords and single notes. Dynamics include mf (mezzo-forte) and mp (mezzo-piano). The piece concludes with a final chord in the bass line.

The musical score for 'The Rose Tree' is presented in three systems. The first system contains the vocal melody in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 4/4 time signature. The melody consists of eighth and quarter notes, often beamed together, with slurs and accents. The second system features a piano accompaniment in bass clef, marked mf (mezzo-forte). It includes a series of chords and single notes, with slurs and accents. The third system continues the piano accompaniment with more complex chordal textures, including triplets and slurs, and is marked with mf. The piece concludes with a double bar line.
