SAIL ON

Moderately \( \frac{\text{C}}{\text{T}} = 76 \)

Words and Music by Lionel RICHIE

Sail on down the line, 'bout a half a mile or so, and a funny how the time can go on.

Sail on down the line, ain't it

Don't really wanna know a where you're goin',

Friends say they told me so, but it doesn't matter.

Maybe once or twice, you see,
It was plain to see that a time after time I tried a to, small town boy like me just a to hold on to what we got, but a wasn't your cup of tea. It was now you're goin':

and I don't mind about the 2.3. I gave you my heart and I things you're gonna say, Lord,

tried to make you happy,
I gave all my money, and my time,
and you gave me nothin' in return.
You know, it ain't so hard to say,
but I'm a shame,

I'll be on my way,
if I've thrown away the blues,

2. I'm tired of being used,

I guess I'll move along;
I'm lookin' for a good time.
