May There Be
PEACE ON EARTH THIS CHRISTMAS

I'm dreaming now of Christmas
And all its wond'rous things,
I'm dreaming of a world of love
This little message brings.

May there be peace on earth this Christmas,
And may the bells of joy ring loud and clear.
May our dreams of love for each other,
Come true and live from year to year.
May there be peace on earth this Christmas,
And when the evening shadows fall,
Let us ask God when we pray,
For a lasting peace that day,
Then the world will get the greatest gift of all.

Harold Dixon
Elizabeth Vaughn

Strains of last half of Chorus

May there be peace on earth this Christmas, And when the evening shad - ows fall, Let us ask God when we pray, for a last-ing peace that day, Then the world will get the grea'-est gift of all. May there be all.

(O Du Fröhliche)

Transcribed for the piano by

JEAN NAVARRO

Andante religioso

The first section of the score, 'Andante religioso', is written in 4/4 time and consists of three systems of music. The first system begins with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic and includes a cresc. marking. The second system features a dim. (diminuendo) marking and a piano (p) dynamic. The third system concludes with a dim. marking and a final cadence. The score includes various musical notations such as slurs, ties, and fingerings, along with decorative floral ornaments.

Più animato

The second section, 'Più animato', is written in 3/4 time and consists of two systems of music. It begins with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic. The first system features a series of eighth-note patterns with fingerings (1, 2, 4, 5) and includes decorative floral ornaments. The second system continues these patterns, also with fingerings and ornaments, leading to a final cadence.
