A Spoonful Of Sugar
From Walt Disney's Mary Poppins

Words and Music by RICHARD M. SHERMAN and ROBERT B. SHERMAN

In ev'ry job that must be done there is an element of fun. You feath-er-ing his nest has very little time to rest while bees that fetch the nectar from the flowers to the comb never find the fun and snap the job's a game. And ev'ry task you un-gather bits of twine and twig. Though quite intent in his pur-tire of ev'er buzzing to and fro. Because they take a little take becomes a piece of cake. A lark! A spree! It's suit, he has a merry tune to toot. He knows a song will nip, from ev'ry flower that they sip. And hence, they find their very clear to see. That a move the job along. For a task is not a grind. For a spoonful of sugar helps the medicine go down, the medicine go down, medicine go down. Just a spoonful of sugar helps the medicine go down in a most delightful way.

A robin way.
